

Maya

Maya was born in California and has adapted well to Arizona's most Western town of Scottsdale. Besides loving her equine lifestyle, she enjoys swimming, singing, biking, hiking and having fun with her friends.

Riding since age 6, Maya who is now 9 has enjoyed riding a variety of horses in both English Hunters and Western Pleasure. Maya's dream horse is her beloved 8-year-old Holsteiner Gelding named Jackson. They enjoy getting to know each other while practicing English hunters and building confidence with one another. She also enjoys riding Toby, Mikey, Jitters and many more 'Get Over It Farm' team member's horses.

Maya joined Pony Club to learn and love all that is equine as well as to be part of this amazing team while mastering the art of sportsmanship. Maya is inspired by Sonja Duckstein & Rachel Mikrut as her superstar Hunter/Jumper equine role models!
